Dear Mrs. Manley:

Received your letter of April 24.

I wrote you on the same date advising you that I was writing to Mr. Pompey in Memphis informing him that you had May 8 and 9 booked.

I'll check up with East Orange on those dates that you listed.

The scheduled game between the Cubans and the Eagles will probably be played in Staten Island.

No doubt, by this time you have received the mats that I sent you and I am enclosing herewith the probable batting order for the Cubans in case you want to use it for other publicity purposes.

Very truly yours,

W. A. Leuschner
